

Kylie Bi — Editorial CV & Portfolio Design System

A tailored visual system designed specifically for:

- European creative industries
- luxury communication
- speculative design studios
- editorial & narrative-driven visual communication
- automotive brand communication
- interdisciplinary creative practices

The goal is NOT to create a highly decorative CV. The goal is to create:

Quiet Creative Professionalism

A visual language that feels:

- intelligent
 - contemporary
 - editorial
 - cinematic
 - restrained
 - atmospheric
 - highly curated

01 — OVERALL VISUAL DIRECTION

Recommended Aesthetic Positioning

Your materials should feel closer to:

- contemporary editorial publications
- fashion communication portfolios
- exhibition catalogs
- creative research archives
- art direction presentations

NOT:

- corporate templates
 - overly artistic layouts
 - Behance-style showcase pages
 - colorful startup portfolios

02 — TYPOGRAPHY SYSTEM

PRIMARY FONT SYSTEM

OPTION A (Strongest Recommendation)

Heading / Titles

Neue Haas Grotesk Display

Why:

- contemporary
- intelligent
- European editorial feeling
- luxury communication compatible
- minimal but sophisticated

Use for:

- name
 - section titles
 - project titles
 - navigation

Body Text

Neue Haas Grotesk Text

Why:

- highly readable
- neutral
- refined
- perfect for editorial systems

Use for:

- body paragraphs
 - descriptions
 - captions
 - details

FREE ALTERNATIVE

If you cannot access Neue Haas:

Titles

Inter Tight

Body

Inter

This is the safest free alternative. Minimal, contemporary, clean.

OPTIONAL SECONDARY SERIF

ONLY for:

- quote lines
- very subtle emphasis
- portfolio section transitions

Recommended:

Editorial New

or

Tiempos

IMPORTANT: Use serif very sparingly. Your profile should remain primarily clean editorial sans-serif.

03 — FONT SIZE SYSTEM

04 — SPACING & GRID SYSTEM

MOST IMPORTANT RULE

WHITE SPACE = PROFESSIONALISM

Your layouts should NEVER feel crowded.

European creative layouts rely heavily on:

- rhythm
 - breathing room
 - pacing
 - visual silence

CV GRID SYSTEM

Recommended:

12-column editorial grid

Margins: 18–24 mm

Gutter: 4–6 mm

VERTICAL SPACING SYSTEM

Between major sections

28–40 px

Between roles/projects

18–24 px

Between paragraph & bullets

8–12 px

Between bullet lines

4–6 px

ALIGNMENT

Strong recommendation:

LEFT-ALIGNED EVERYTHING

Avoid:

- centered layouts
 - overly symmetrical design
 - infographic structures

05 — COLOR SYSTEM

CORE PRINCIPLE

Monochrome First

Your strongest visual identity is:

- typography
- layout rhythm
- spacing
- pacing

NOT color.

PRIMARY PALETTE

Main Background

F8F7F4

Soft warm white. More editorial and cinematic than pure white.

Main Text

111111

Avoid pure black. Feels more refined.

Secondary Text

5F5F5F

Use for:

- captions
 - metadata
 - dates
 - keywords

Subtle Divider Lines

D8D6D2

Very soft warm gray.

OPTIONAL ACCENT COLORS

ONLY IF NECESSARY.

Very restrained.

Recommended:

Deep Olive Gray

4E5648

OR

Muted Burgundy

5A3A3A

OR

Dusty Blue Gray

4C5966

Use only for:

- hyperlinks
- tiny highlights
- hover states
- section markers

NEVER:

- colorful blocks
 - gradients
 - bright UI colors

06 — IMAGE TREATMENT

PORTFOLIO IMAGES

Your images should feel:

- cinematic
 - atmospheric
 - restrained
 - editorial

Recommended Image Logic

Use:

- full-bleed spreads sparingly
 - generous margins
 - asymmetrical pacing
 - large quiet images
 - process close-ups
 - detail crops

DO NOT:

- overcrowd pages
 - use collage overload
 - add too many mockups
 - place images in rigid grids everywhere

IMPORTANT FOR YOU

Your portfolio should feel like:

A communication archive

NOT:

a software showcase

09 — VISUAL ATMOSPHERE REFERENCES

Your overall tone should feel close to:

- fashion editorial pacing
- contemporary art publications
- speculative design archives
- luxury communication decks
- exhibition identity systems

Keywords:

- restrained
- intelligent
- cinematic
- atmospheric
- precise
- narrative-driven

- contemporary

10 — MOST IMPORTANT FINAL ADVICE

Your strongest visual weapon is NOT decoration.

It is:

- hierarchy
- rhythm
- narrative pacing
- typography
- conceptual clarity
- restraint

Your profile becomes significantly stronger when the design feels:

calm, intentional, and highly curated.

Not when it tries too hard to look creative.
